

The following are examples of common citations in APA Style. Please consult the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 6th edition for more examples. The book is available at Milner Library in the book stacks for checkout and for in building use at the Floor 2 reference collection and behind the Reference Desk (REF BF 76.7 .P83 2010). Note that journal articles only need to include the issue number if each issue of the article begins with page 1. When citing a journal article that was retrieved online, provide the URL of the journal's home page, not the database where it was found.
